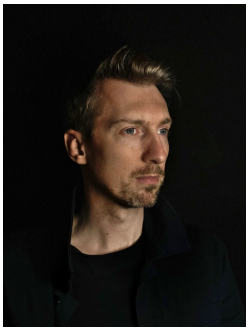
Derek Kirkup

COMPOSER · PRODUCER · PIANIST

contact@derekkirkup.com · derekkirkup.com
IMDb imdb.com/name/nm3079213



BIOGRAPHY

Derek Kirkup is a British post-classical composer, producer and pianist. A graduate of the Academy of Contemporary Music, he writes for film, television, games, performance and installation. His score for James Webber's feature Sorority won the Alan Parsons Award for Best Original Score at the Scotland International Festival of Cinema, and his most recent score is Carl Mackenzie's PTSD drama Unseen Scars.

SELECTED CREDITS

2024	Unseen Scars	Feature · dir. Carl Mackenzie
2023	Safe	Short
2023	Terror Winner – Best Scottish Short Film – British Short Film Awards 2023 Winner – Best Horror Short Film – FilmQuest 2023	Short
2022	The Movement	TV pilot
2020	Sorority Alan Parsons Award for Best Original Score for a Feature – Scotland International Film Festival 2022	Feature · dir. James Webber
2020	Condensation	Short
2018	Playing with Death: Catch a Killer	Game
2017	All Clear	Short
2017	Hushy Bye	Short
2017	Just a Day	Short
2016	The Interrogation of Olivia Donovan Jury Special Mention – Manchester International Film Festival 2017	Short · dir. Carl Mackenzie
2014	Olive Green Gold Medal (Entertainment Category) – New York Festivals World's Best TV and Film Awards 2016 Winner (Educational Apps Category) – BETT Awards 2016	Interactive feature
—	The Marshlands	TV series (pilot)